DETAILED ACTION

Response to Argument

1. Applicant's election with traverse of claims 1-27 in Paper No. 10534489 is acknowledged. Because applicant did not distinctly and specially point out the supposed errors of the process as proposed by the Examiner in the restriction requirement that is considered to be distinct from the process of the claimed invention; thus the election has been treated as an election without traverse (MPEP 818.03 (a)).

In addition, even though they are classified together; each invention can be shown to have formed a separate subject for inventive effort. Separate status in the art may be shown by citing patents, which are evidence of such separate status, and also of separate field of search. Therefore, the restriction still remains proper and burden is shown by the different classes that the examiner have to search.

Election/Restrictions

2. This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species:

- Species 1, claims 1-10 reading on figure 7
- Species 2, claims 11-19 reading on figure 8
- Species 3, claims 20-22 reading on figure 9
- Species 4, claims 23-26 reading on figures 13

The species are independent or distinct because claims to the different species recite the mutually exclusive characteristics of such species. In addition, these species are not obvious variants of each other based on the current record.

3. Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently there is no apparent generic claim.

There is an examination and search burden for these patentably distinct species due to there mutually exclusive characteristics. The species require a different field of search (e.g., searching different classes/subclasses or electronic resources, or employing different search queries); and/or the prior art applicable to one species would not likely be applicable to another species; and/or the species are likely to raise different non-prior art issues under 35 U.S.C. 101 and /or 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species to be examined even though the requirement may be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected species, including any claims subsequently unless accompanied by an election.

The election of the species may be made with or without traverse. To preserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the election of species requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse. Traversal must be presented at the time of election in order to be considered timely. Failure to timely traverse the requirement will result in the loss of right to petition under 37 CFR 1.144. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which of these claims are readable on the elected species.

4. Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the species unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C.103 (a) of the other species.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which depend from or otherwise require all the limitations of an allowable generic claim as provided by CFR 1.141.

5. A telephone call was made to James Eller on 09/12/2007 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but the applicant could not be reach.
